

XM Radio is an outstanding alternative format. I pay for and enjoy greatly their service. They should be allowed to move about freely in the marketplace, to offer local news, weather, and event coverage like sporting games. The conventional broadcast spectrum providers maybe disrupted but that's the nature of change.

Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160 for the sake of a free market of ideas and formats for communication.